

Intelligent Mobility Insight

Business Intelligence for global mobility professionals

Launching May 2015

Welcome to Intelligent Mobility Insight, the first dedicated daily newsletter and website bringing together the latest business intelligence across the spectrum of stakeholders in the race for Intelligent Mobility solutions.

IntelligentMobilityInsight.com (IMI) is a daily digital HTML newsletter service with accompanying, fully searchable, website.

IMI will provide news stories and trends across all the major industry verticals and provide intelligent, informed comment and business critical information to the executives developing the solutions to the world's integrated transport and mobility challenges.

We look forward to welcoming you to IMI
